AEU WOMEN'S CONFERENCE AUGUST 26TH 2023

The Girls with Attitude 100% student school leaders promote gender equality and respectful relationships at our school. They work to build a society where all people can achieve their goals and be happy without fear of harm.

Aliyah, Amber, Caitlyn, Keeley, Selena, Amelia, Hania and Skylar presented two workshops to the women (educators, politicians, healthcare workers, interested others) who travelled from all over the State to meet and network at the conference. D'Arcy and Karlee couldn't be there, but they have been a big part of the group's work to date.

The GWA100% presenters were prepared, passionate and enthusiastic and the audience gave them a mighty clap and cheer when they finished each presentation. It took courage to do what they did, and someone said, 'those girls smashed it!'

Ms Lucy came to support the group and commented, 'They all did really well presenting at the conference...a super effort and the ladies there were all very impressed with this group's commitment and purpose...and leading the way for other schools.'

Senator Grogan, who is a passionate supporter of the GWA100% group said, 'They were sooooo good!' Helen Whyte from Longstreet Primary, Whyalla said, 'wow what an impressive group of young women!' Mrs Wilson said, 'They did SO well! The audience members were very impressed and encouraging.' Mel and Anne from Soroptimist International said, 'the girls have been GREAT!'

We'd like to thank the GWA100% student school leaders for representing our school so competently at the conference. Thanks also to the parents and guardians for supporting their children as they do and making this event such a success. Thanks also to our teacher and SSO colleagues who have supported the GWA100% program along the way. Go GWA100% girls! YAY! 😊

The boys played exceptionally well across all four games, beating Karrendi, Keller Road, Salisbury Park and Elizabeth East to take the title. The boys displayed teamwork, cooperation and communication to go unbeaten for the day.

A big congratulations to all the players, and a huge thank you to the accompanying teachers and parents who came out to support us.
