BACKPACKS 4 SA KIDS

This year Para Hills School will be donating to Back Packs 4 SA Kids to help fill a child's backpack for Christmas.

There are certain items that can and cannot be donated. Please take note in the pictures attached.

Items to be placed in the basket in the office

This year we will be making donations for a great cause to help Back Packs 4 SA Kids! One item per family/student can be brought to the front office if you wish to donate to this wonderful foundation. Please no Christmas themed items.

Items that can be donated include:

- New clothing
- A new small toy or game
- A New or great condition book
- New Toiletries
- New Stationery

An example of what goes into the backpacks can be viewed in the pictures above as well as on their website.

Please refer to the website for further information.

GWA 100% CASUAL DAY

Casual Clothes Day went well thanks to all of our generous families. We raised heaps. Well done all!

Tyla and Charlie came for a visit from the Northern Adelaide Domestic Violence Service. They said the GWA100% leadership group are doing a great job promoting gender equality and respectful relationships.

All funds for the Casual Day that was held Friday 3rd November, went to support the 'Northern Adelaide Domestic Violence Service', $230.40 was raised. Every student that made a gold coin donation went into a draw to win 2 signed women's CROWS football. Congratulations to Blaize and Ethan!

NEW SCHOOL FLAGS

Thank you to Mr Michael Brown MP, for organising new flags for our school.

We appreciate your ongoing support.

AMBULANCE VISIT

Last Tuesday the JP students had a visit from two SA Paramedics. We learnt all about how they use their ambulances and the important role they play in our community. Some of us got to try out their stretcher, try on some uniforms and practice with the bandages.

Thank you to Sarah and Sarah for sharing their knowledge with us.
